

International
Pediatric
Sleep
Association

April 27-29, 2018

IPSA 2018 PARIS • FRANCE

International Pediatric Sleep Association • pedsleep.org

HOT TOPICS:

- Insomnia treatment approaches
- Sleep influences on cognition and behaviour in children
- New instruments for the diagnosis of sleep disorders in children
- Orthodontic and myofunctional therapy in children with OSA
- Neonatal sleep
- Adolescent sleep and the epidemic of social networks
- Phenotypes and new treatments in child narcolepsy
- Obesity and sleep in children
- Parasomnia and abnormal movements during sleep

VENUE:

IPSA 2018 will take place in The Palais des Congrès de Paris.

Palais des Congrès de Paris
2 place de la Porte Maillot,
75017 Paris

ABSTRACTS/POSTERS:

Abstract submission starts November 1, 2017 with a deadline of March 31, 2018.

SYMPOSIUM/ORAL PRESENTATIONS:

Symposium submission deadline is December 31, 2017.

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

Carole L. Marcus, MBBCh

New developments in childhood OSAS
Director of the Sleep Center at Children's Hospital of Philadelphia,
Perelman School of Medicine, University of Pennsylvania (US)

Monique K. LeBourgeois, PhD

Sleep and Circadian Rhythms in Early Childhood
Department of Integrative Physiology, University of Colorado,
Boulder (US)

Marion Leboyer, MD, PhD

Microbiote and psychiatric disorders in children
Hôpital Albert Chenevier,
University of Paris Est (UPEC) (France)

Mark S. Blumberg, PhD

REM sleep twitches and sensorimotor development
Director of The Delta Center,
University of Iowa, Iowa City (US)